General
Wahr

INDEX

Academy of Detectioneers, An, Tiverton, 255
"Adapted for the Stage," Gallishaw, 350
Adventure Fiction Markets, The Writer's List of, 82
Albert, Dora, Writing for the Movie Magazines, 93; Writing for the Movies, 359
Alcott, Bronson, Baldwin, 363
Alcott, Louisa M., Centenary Year, 327
Allen, Maurice, A Suitable Name for "Verse," 20
Article Markets, The Writer's List of, 303
Attic Salt Shakers, Chapman, 40
Austin, Shirley K., Release in Expression, 334

Babcock, Lyndon, Writing the Historical Radio Skit, 356
Baker, Joy C., Time to Work, 300
Baldwin, Louise E., Bronson Alcott, 363
Barleben, Karl A., Jr., Preparing Photographs for the Press, 189; The Value of Photography to the Writer, 46
Beginner's Luck, Van der Veer, 334
Biography at Large, Brown, 1
Bond, F. Fraser, Telling the Reader a Story, 319; The Reader's Interest in People: The Personal Sketch, 287; Understanding the Reader's Psychology, 219
Book Reviews, 28, 58, 89, 118, 147, 182, 214, 246, 278, 310, 342, 374
Bradford, Gamaliel: A Challenge, Ware, 155
Brown, Alice, Biography at Large, 1
Bullard, J. E., Keep Writing, 168
"Buried Stories" of Mrs. Rinehart, The, Tiverton, 323

Camera as a Useful Tool, The, Pruden, 171
Cameron, Eleanor, Writing the News Feature Story, 293
Card Catalogue Journal, The, Felder, Samuel, 236
Center, Harry B., Why Manuscripts Come Back, 123
Chapman, Maristan, The Attic Salt Shakers, 40
Clements, Colin. See Ryerson, Florence
Clifford, Isabel G., Tusko Is Allowed to Live, 67
Climbing the Literary Ladder, Powell, 194
Coblentz, Catherine C., The Poetic Inspiration and the Scientific "Hunch," 237
Coffey, Homer M., Words, 264
Collaboration or Collusion?, Troutman, 333
College Students as Writers, Mather, 257
Collier, Flora R., You Go A-Puppeting, 296
Condit, Harriet O., Preparing the Final Copy, 50
Connolly, James B., How I Write Sea Stories, 31
Contest for Feature Articles, Awards in, 66; Rules, 30a
Contest for Juvenile Stories or Articles, Awards in, 159; Rules, 92a
Cooper, Billy B., If This Be Treason, 364
Correction, A, Milliken, Sidney N., 80
Cranfill, Mabel, Dorothy Scarborough — Writer and Professor of Writing, 329

Davies, Mary Carolyn, The Sonnet, 104
Davison, Ada C., It's Just As Well, 135
Day's Grist, The, Robinson, 298
Deland, Margaret, How a Short Story May Be Written, 283
Deland's, Mrs., Article, Whalen, 333
Dividends from History, Hutchinson, 35
Dodgson, Mr., and Lewis Carroll, Van Doren, 7
Drama Markets, The Writer's List of, 368

Early, Eleanor, Writing for the Greeting-Card Market, 137
Educational Article, The Technique of, White, 325
Ellery Queen's Folder, Felder, 266
Ely, Effie S., Markets to Fall Back On, 363
Emery, Harold, What Records Shall I Keep?, 135
Ethics of a Reporter, Manchester, 10

Feature Article Contest, Awards in, 66; Rules, 30a
Felder, Samuel, The Card Catalogue Journal, 236; Ellery Queen's Folder, 266
Fiction Markets, The Writer's List of, 114
Fiction Themes, The Great Unused, Harris, 107
Fiction Writer's Earlier Job, The, Minot, 71
Fiction Writing Can Be Taught, Gallishaw, 315
First Hundred Lines, The, Merwarth, 299
Flashes from Articles in Magazines, 30, 60, 92, 122, 153, 181, 213, 245, 277, 309, 341, 378
Forbes, Edwin F., The Informative Instinct, 201
Forum, The, 20, 49, 79, 109, 135, 171, 201, 236, 264, 298, 332, 363

Gallishaw, John, "Adapted for the Stage," 350; Fiction Writing Can Be Taught, 315
Geithmann, Harriet, Persistence, 265
Goethe's Philosophy of Life, 74
Goforth, Raymond, The Mechanical Story, 238
Good Usage and Standard English, Weller, 111
Great Sotheby's, The, Prior, 5
Greeting-Card Market, Writing for the, Early, 137
Greeting-Card Markets, The Writer's List of, 140

Harris, William E., The Great Unused Fiction Themes, 107
Has There Been Some Writing on the Wall?, Parker, 172
Herd-Boy's Flute, The, Kelley, 161
Holden, Barbara, A Unique Use for the Writing Bug, 171
Hold Your Manuscripts, Kampe, 300
Hoover, Gene B., Poetry or Verse, 50
How a Short Story May Be Written, Deland, 283
How Ben Ames Williams Writes a Story, Williams, 14
How I Write Sea Stories, Connolly, 31
"How" of Successful Characterization, The, Wentworth, 196
How Ray Long Reads Manuscripts, 235
Hoyt, Murray, Placing the Sport Story, 49
Hubachek, Elsie M., Some Pointers for Novelists, 101
Hudson, Hillary, To Use — or Not to Use — a Pen Name, 299
Hutchinson, Marion H., Dividends from History, 35; Profits from Politics, 224

If This Be Treason, Cooper, 364
Informative Instinct, The, Forbes, 201
Inside Newspaper Stuff, Manchester, 75
It's Just As Well, Davison, 135

Juvenile Markets, The Writer's List of, 175
Juvenile Stories or Articles Contest, Awards in, 159; Rules, 92a

Kampe, Frederick, Hold Your Manuscripts, 300
Keep Writing, Bullard, 168
Kelley, Edna E., The Herd-Boy's Flute, 161
Kleiser, Grenville, Well-Worn Phrases, 236

Lawrence, Isabelle W., Live and Learn, 233
Literary Critics at Two Bits Per MS., 164
Live and Learn, Lawrence, 233
Lyric Writer Tells How, A, Tiverton, 354

Magazines That Change All but the Name, Smith, 81
Making Sure of Frequent Checks, Rhoads, 237
Manchester, Harland F., News from the Literary Front, 150, 185, 217, 249, 281, 313, 345, 376; Some Aspects of Newspaper Work, 10, 42, 75, 98, 130; Turning Over New Leaves (Editor of), 147, 182, 214, 246, 278, 310, 342, 374; The Writer in His Lair, 166
Manuscript Market, The, 22, 51, 84, 112, 143, 173, 203, 239, 272, 301, 335, 365
Mapping the Story, Remington, 265
Marc, Tristan, Translating — A Writer's Holiday, 198
Markets to Fall Back On, Ely, 363
Markworth, Mildred, Why Are Authors "Different"?, 332
Mather, Ruth, College Students as Writers, 257
Mechanical Story, The, Goforth, 238
Merwarth, Sarah E., The First Hundred Lines, 299
Miller, Jean, Tips from a Manuscript Reader, 230
Miller [Max] Says, "Don't Talk Too Much," Perry, 260
Miller, Richard, Professional and Amateur, 21
Milliken, Sidney N., A Correction, 80
Minot, John Clair, The Fiction Writer's Earlier Job, 71
Moore, Wanda, Psychology from the News Stands, 202
Movie Magazines, Writing for the, Albert, 93
Movies, Writing for the, Albert, 359

News Feature Story, Writing the, Cameron, 293
News from the Literary Front, 150, 185, 217, 249, 281, 313, 345, 376
Newspaper Work, Some Aspects of, Manchester, 10, 42, 75, 98, 130
Niggli, Josephine, A Time System for MSS. Records, 266
Not Impossible He, The, 271
Notes from New Books, 61. See Quotes from New Books
Novelists, Some Pointers for, Hubachek, 101

Pagett, Earl, Trapping and Writing, 110
Parker, E. Margaret, Has There Been Some Writing on the Wall?, 172
Perry, John W., "Don't Talk Too Much," Says Miller, 260
Persistence, Geithmann, 265
Pick a Field, Editor McKeogh Tells Writers, Tiverton, 291
Pirie, Mary, The Secret of Fifteen Minutes a Day — with a Diary, 136
Placing the Sport Story, Hoyt, 49
Plays for Tomorrow, Rubsamen, 347
Poetic Inspiration and the Scientific "Hunch," The, Coblentz, 237
Poetry of Today, Stevens, 20
Poetry or Verse, Hoover, 50
Powell, Hanford, Jr., Climbing the Literary Ladder, 194
Preparing Photographs for the Press, Barleben, 189
Preparing the Final Copy, Condit, 50
Prior, P. B., The Great Sotheby's, 5
Prize Offers and Awards, 26, 54, 85, 116, 145, 178, 206, 243, 275, 307, 339, 371
Professional and Amateur, Miller, 21
Profits from Politics, Hutchinson, 224
Pruden, S. Bradley, The Camera As a Useful Tool, 171
Psychology from the News Stands, Moore, 202

Quotes from New Books, 61, 91, 121, 152, 186, 218, 250, 282, 314, 346, 377

Radio Skit, Writing the Historical, Babcock, 356
Ray, Louis D., The Tools of Literary Fame, 38
"Read and Write and Burn." An Interview with T. S. Stribling, Walsh, 127
Reader's Interest in People: The Personal Sketch, The, Bond, 287
Rejection Slips, Scott, 334
Release in Expression, Austin, 334
Remington, Roger W., Mapping the Story, 265
Rhoads, Making Sure of Frequent Checks, 237
Rinehart, Mrs., The "Buried Stories" of, Tiverton, 323
Roberts, Lydia L., A Talk with Librarians, 79
Robinson, Celia M., The Day's Grist, 298
Rubsamen, C. Louis, Plays for Tomorrow, 347
Ryerson, Florence, and Clements, Colin, Sneaking up on Work, 187

Scarborough, Dorothy — Writer and Professor of Writing, Cranfill, 329
Scott, Dorothy A., Rejection Slips, 334
Scoville, Dorothy R., Syndicate Salesmanship, 267
Sea Stories, How I Write, Connolly, 31
Secret of Fifteen Minutes a Day — with a Diary, The, Pirie, 136
Selling the Farm Markets, Stalcup, 202
Short-Short Story, The Ten Points of, White, 251
Short Story May Be Written, How a, Deland, 283
Smith, Fred, Magazines That Change All but the Name, 81
Sneaking up on Work, Ryerson and Clements, 187
Some Aspects of Newspaper Work, Manchester, 10, 42, 75, 98, 130
Some Pointers for Novelists, Hubachek, 101
Sonnet, The, Davies, 104
"Stage, Adapted for the," Gallishaw, 350
Stalcup, Kenneth, Selling the Farm Markets, 202
Stevens, Ada B., Poetry of Today, 20
Suitable Name for "Verse," A, Allen, 20
Syndicate Markets, The Writer's List of, 269
Syndicate Salesmanship, Scoville, 267

Talk with Librarians, A, Roberts, 79
Technique of the Educational Article, The, White, 325
Telling the Reader a Story, Bond, 319
Ten Points of the Short-Short Story, The, White, 251
Time System for MSS. Records, A, Niggli, 266
Time to Work, Baker, 300
Tips from a Manuscript Reader, Miller, 230
Tiverton, Dana, An Academy of Detectioneers, 255; The "Buried Stories" of Mrs. Rinehart, 323; A Lyric Writer Tells How, 354; Pick a Field, Editor McKeogh Tells Writers, 291; Where Plots Come From, 228; Writing for Hollywood. An interview with Dorothy Spear, 192
Today's Market and the Author, White, 63
Tools of Literary Fame, The, Ray, 38
To Use — or Not to Use — a Pen Name, Hudson, 299
Translating — A Writer's Holiday, Marc, 198
Trapping and Writing, Pagett, 110
Troutman, F. Austin, Collaboration or Collusion?, 333
Turning Over New Leaves, Manchester (Editor of), 147, 182, 214, 246, 278, 310, 342, 374. See also Book Reviews
Tusko Is Allowed to Live, Clifford, 67
"Two on the Aisle," Manchester, 130

Unconscious Plagiarism, Woodward, 109
Understanding the Reader's Psychology, Bond, 219
Unique Use for the Writing Bug, A, Holden, 171

Value of Photography to the Writer, The, Barleben, 46
Van der Veer, Katherine W., Beginner's Luck, 334
Van Doren, Dorothy, Mr. Dodgson and Lewis Carroll, 7
Verse Markets, The Writer's List of, 208

Walsh, Ulysses, "Read and Write and Burn." An Interview with T. S. Stribling, 127
Ware, Leonard Jr., Gamaliel Bradford: A Challenge, 155
Wealth in the English Language, Weller, 80
Weller, Arthur, Good Usage and Standard English, 111; Wealth in the English Language, 80
Well-Worn Phrases, Kleiser, 236
Wentworth, S. H., The "How" of Successful Characterization, 196
Whalen, Joseph I., Mrs. Deland's Article, 333
What Records Shall I Keep?, Emery, 135
Where Plots Come From, Tiverton, 228
White, Trentwell M., The Technique of the Educational Article, 325; The Ten Points of the Short-Short Story, 251; Today's Market and the Author, 63
Why Are Authors "Different"?, Markworth, 332
Why Manuscripts Come Back, Center, 123
Williams, Ben A., How Ben Ames Williams Writes a Story, 14
Woman's Page, The, Manchester, 98
Women in Newspaper Jobs, Manchester, 42
Woodward, Helen R., Unconscious Plagiarism, 109
Words, Coffey, 264
Writer in His Lair, The, Manchester, 166
Writer's List of Markets for: Adventure Fiction, 82; Articles, 303; Drama, 368; Fiction, 114; Greeting-Card, 140; Juvenile, 175; Syndicates, 269; Verse, 208
Writing for Hollywood. An Interview with Dorothy Spear, Tiverton, 192
Writing for the Greeting-Card Market, Early, 137
Writing for the Movie Magazines, Albert, 93
Writing for the Movies, Albert, 359
Writing the Historical Radio Skit, Babcock, 356
Writing the News Feature Story, Cameron, 293

You Go A-Puppeting, Collier, 296